MDC Spring SHRM Online Course

Online Course: SHRM Certification Online Prep Course

Course Dates: Feb. 8 – May 2, 2021

Price: $1200 (discounts available for FHSU Alumn, early registrations and students)

Instructor: Mr. Tom Zerfas

Do you know a student, acquaintance or co-worker who could benefit from a professional HR certification? If so, feel free to share this course with them!

The SHRM-CP & SCP certifications will allow you to be recognized as a qualified and valuable HR professional. The MDC's SHRM Certification Prep Course is designed to set up individuals in the HR field for future success by greatly increasing their chances of passing the SHRM-CP and SHRM-SCP exam to obtain these certifications. Participants will benefit from expert instruction, the SHRM Learning System—the official certification prep tool, and supplemental materials on FHSU's Learning Management System, Blackboard. The course concludes right before the next SHRM certification exam testing window, so you don't have to worry about forgetting what you just learned.

This course is structured as an asynchronous, independent study. Expert instruction and support will be available to all participants throughout the course by SHRM-certified instructor Mr. Tom Zerfas. Students are eligible to receive 3 credit hours for this course, making it a great addition to their spring course schedule.

Register by January 29. Early registration ends January 18.

For more information on this course, visit the MDC's website or email us!

Employment Opportunity – Marketing Editor – University Relations and Marketing

University Relations and Marketing is accepting applications for a Marketing Editor.

The marketing editor reports to the chief communications officer and is responsible for developing strategic communications and marketing content that elevates Hays State University's institutional profile. Efforts include researching and writing articles in support of university content marketing efforts, magazine and marketing copywriting and editing, writing press releases, news distribution, earned media strategy development. The Office Of Global Partnerships Is Accepting Applications For A Program Specialist

This position supports the Assistant Vice President for Global Partnerships with academic partnerships between FHSU and international higher education institutions, domestic corporate entities and other related organizations. The position includes a wide range of administrative duties including building partnership relationships; developing creative campaigns including marketing fliers; statistical reports and spreadsheets; handling information requests; planning special events and meetings; arranging electronic communications and social media; back up support for international travel arrangements; and serves as an essential communicator for positive working relationships between the Office of Global Partnerships and its partners around the world. This position will interact with people of other cultures, maintaining the globally-recognized reputation of the University and the city of Hays. This position supports the large and important initiative in mainland China with nearly 50 faculty teaching at its partners' schools and also supports the expansion of other initiatives around the world. A successful candidate must be able to communicate professionally; possess excellent problem-solving and time management skills; be detail oriented; and have the ability to determine priorities and meet deadlines.

Deadline for applying is December 9, 2020. For a full description and to apply, please visit <https://fhsu.wd1.myworkdayjobs.com/CAREERS>

Designate Fall 2021 Z-Courses By The End Of The Semester

The OER Committee is working to identify courses that use zero-cost course materials (Z-Courses) for the Fall 2021 Workday registration system implementation. The deadline for submitting Z-Courses for Fall 2021 has been extended to the end of this semester. Departments have the option to receive a $6 cost-share per student taking a registered Z-course. To learn more about the Z-Course Designation, visit the FHSU OER website. To register your Z-course:

1. Have the department chair sign the PDF Chair Approval Form for Z-Course Certification. This form gives the department the option to waive the z-course cost share if desired.
2. Fill out the Google Z-Course Certification Form. It includes a field for uploading the chair form.

If you don't currently teach a Z-course but want to convert your large-enrollment course to use zero-cost course materials, consider applying for a Z-course grant (ranging from $500-$5,000 with a rolling deadline). Contact Claire Nickerson at cenickerson@fhsu.edu with any questions.

Invitation to Help Celebrate our Graduating Class of 2020

On behalf of the Commencement Committee, I would like to invite you to celebrate our graduating class of 2020! We will be recognizing the spring, summer and fall graduates during our virtual Fall Commencement on Friday, December 11, 2020 on the official Fort Hays State University Facebook page and on the Tiger Media Network. There are different times scheduled throughout the day for each of the five academic colleges (see below). In addition to the ceremonies, there are various other opportunities for you to help recognize and celebrate our Tiger grads!

Here's how:

- 1) Kudoboard -- Sign the Kudoboard. You can upload photos, import gifs, or write a message on the board and it will be displayed for our graduates to see
- 2) Hashtag # -- Invite graduates to share photos and messages using our hashtag, #tigergrad
- 3) Instagram -- Use our Instagram filters and post on Instagram --- The filters are available on Instagram stories, search "FHSU" under the effects option. There are also templates available on the Tiger Media Network Instagram under the GRAD highlight (Yellow circle with mortar board icon) to share on department pages or stories.

- 4) Facebook -- Post your department's greetings on Facebook
- 5) Yard Signs – Invite your graduates to pick up a yard sign at the Tiger Spirit Shop in the Memorial Union. These are available free of charge to graduates on a first come-first served basis (please, one per graduate)
- 6) Downloadable Graduate Signs – If your graduates are unable to pick up a yard sign, invite them to download a sign for their front door or window
- 7) Commencement website (www.fhsu.edu/commencement/) – view the site under the Celebrating Tiger Grads tab for other greetings and activities. If you have an activity you would like to post on the site, please send the information to commencement@fhsu.edu

Thank you for your help in providing a memorable graduation for our 2020 class. Go Tigers!

Times Talk: Spring 2021

It is that time once again! With the semester drawing to a close, the American Democracy Project is beginning to plan for the spring semester! As many of you may know, one of the main events we hold throughout the year are Times Talks, which are short informational presentations, usually around 45 minutes with time for questions at the end. If you or someone you know has a topic they have a desire to present on, please feel free to contact me (i_schindler.se@fhsu.edu). The ADP does accept presentations from students as well, so please let your students know if they have any research they would like to present about! We do ask that the topics be relevant to a specific New York Times article that has been published within the last three years. Furthermore, we ask that topics fall within one of the following areas: promoting civic or political engagement, civil discourse, or providing information on a specific social or political issue. We typically schedule these events on Wednesdays at 12:30pm or Tuesdays/Thursdays at 12:00pm. As a foreseen result of the novel coronavirus pandemic, these Times Talks are held virtually over Zoom. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to reach out and ask!

Thank you so much. May the upcoming break be restful and may you all have a happy holiday season!

Care Team Volunteers

The purpose of the people care teams at Fort Hays State University is engage stakeholders and provide comfort and information, while directing them to any needed support services.

Our objectives are to address safety and security, share academic support, advice, and resources, and share and develop plans, goals, and next steps for success.

We need you to join in this effort to ensure our on-campus and online students feel connected, encouraged, and confident in continuing their educational journey at FHSU. Do you want to sign up to serve on a care team? Fill out our volunteer form.

We are hosting optional information sessions in December to review the roles, responsibilities, logistics, and time commitment of a care team volunteer. If you are unable to attend one of these sessions, we can set up an individual meeting for you to learn more. Session options are on Wednesday, December 16 (choose 1 time)

- 10:00 – 10:45 AM Zoom Meeting (Passcode: Care)
- 1:00 – 1:45 PM Zoom Meeting (Passcode: Care)

FHSU Student Evaluation of Academic Advising - Live November 9 in Blue

On Monday, November 9, 2020 the FHSU Student Evaluation of Academic Advising went live for students in Blue. The move to Blue will:

1. allow for less confusion for students between this evaluation and course evaluations,
2. allowed for an adjustment of the scale to align with the course evaluation, and
3. easier access to results for academic advisors, chairs, and deans.

An email with more detail can be found in your inbox. Questions should be directed to advising@fhsu.edu.

Campus Climate and Victimization Survey

“Dear students,

This is to remind you that the Department of Criminal Justice developed a Campus Climate and Victimization Survey in conjunction with the Office of Student Affairs. You are invited to provide information to FHSU about your experiences since you first enrolled. This anonymous survey will measure campus climate and your perception of safety. The survey also asks about student victimization, access to campus resources, and satisfaction with university and police responses. The survey will take between 30 to 45 minutes. To participate, you must be 18 years or older. The survey will be available until December 15th, 2020.

To complete the survey, please click the following link:

Multicultural and Interdisciplinary Research Team Seeking Student Research Assistants

Are you interested in exploring issues related to leadership development, adversity, resilience, self-efficacy, personality traits, as well as women's issues, gender, and ethnic studies? If so, this may be something to involve yourself with.

The research assistant opportunity is open to undergraduate and graduate students (both on campus and virtual) interested in exploring the makings of BIPOC women leaders by examining factors such as the influences of lived experiences on the leadership development of women that identify as Black, Indigenous, and/or a Persons of Color [BIPOC]. Furthermore, this position is open to FHSU students of any gender identity. This is an excellent opportunity to develop communication skills, enhance professionalism, and expand research abilities.

- The position begins January 19, 2021 and ends May 7, 2021; however, there may be the opportunity to renew for the 2022 AY. Approx. 5 hours per week, on average; however, that could fluctuate week to week based on workload.
- $500 scholarship available (mid to late Spring 2021).

Interested students should submit a resume and/or vita and interest statement (2 to 3 paragraphs) to Dr. Nuchelle Chance nlchance@fhsu.edu by December 14, 2020. Be sure to include your degree of study and your current GPA as well your level of knowledge of quantitative and qualitative research.

Applicants will further conduct a brief interview via zoom with the research team and selected candidates will be notified by late December/early January via email.

2021 Kansas Undergraduate Research Day at the Capitol- Abstract Submissions Open

We are now accepting 250-word abstracts for the 2021 Kansas Undergraduate Research Day at the Capitol. This event is an opportunity for undergraduate students to present their research experiences with state lawmakers in Topeka scheduled for Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday, March 2, 3 & 4, 2020. Due to COVID restrictions, this event will be virtual this year.

DEADLINE FOR ABSTRACTS: Monday, January 25, 2021

This event will showcase the work of up to 40 Kansas undergraduate students representing each of the state's eight public 4-year institutions. The purpose of this event is to demonstrate the unique opportunities undergraduate students have to participate with faculty members in research at all state institutions. This event will also emphasize higher education's role in developing educated citizens and preparing a workforce with the necessary skills to further the economic growth of the state.

Undergraduate students who have been significantly involved in the research enterprise of the university either with their own project or through meaningful involvement with a faculty project are desired as participants. To qualify for this event, participants must:

- be undergraduates during the 2020-2021 academic year;
- have completed research under the guidance of a Kansas 4-year public institution faculty mentor;
- follow the methodology of the appropriate academic discipline;
- be of sufficient quality to be presented at a professional academic meeting;
- have the skills, resources, and capacity to produce a professional academic poster;
- agree to undergo presentation training and rehearse their presentations prior to the Capitol event.

Participants should be able to convey their experience and enthusiasm to state representatives, senators, and other state officials in a poster session. Projects from a broad range of disciplines are encouraged - especially posters that relate to the state of Kansas and issues important to the state legislature (e.g. education, health, agriculture, aviation, biotechnology, energy, transportation, manufacturing, environment, and social services). Up to 5 projects will be selected from each institution.
